

Dear Glenbard classmates,

We thought it would be fun to get you thinking about your senior year with a quiz.
No contest, just fun!

The answers will be revealed on the 4th day, Saturday (Zoom day).

I hope you realize what a wonderful class we had!

Becky and the ad hoc committee

Glenbard 1959 Reunion Questions

1. How many students were in our class?
  2. Where was graduation held?
  3. What was our class gift?
  4. Who was our class president?
  5. Who was our student council president?
  6. What was the name of our school newspaper and who was the editor?
  7. What was the name of the Senior Play?
  8. Where was the Prom held and where did we go afterwards?
  9. Where was the fire in March 1959?
  10. Where did the Senior Trip go?
  11. What was the school tradition on the eve of Homecoming?
  12. Who were our foreign exchange students?
  13. What was the only interscholastic sport for women?
  14. Who was the Dean of Students?
  15. What sport team won second in the state?
- Bonus: How much was a McDonald's hamburger?

What was happening in 1959?

Alaska and Hawaii became states.

Cuban Revolution (Those on the Senior trip saw Fidel Castro at the Capitol)

Buddy Holly, Richie Valens and the Big Bopper died in a plane crash in Iowa.

NASA announced the "Mercury Seven" to become the first astronauts.

Khrushchev visited the United States (became Premier in 1958).

Barbie Doll debuted.

Microchip was invented

Top movie was "Ben Hur". Movie ticket price was 51 cents!